In the colonnade exhibition room, "tachineputa" about 23 m in height is displayed at all times. You can also admire tachineputas from the spiral slope.

Osamu Dazai's birthplace. It is designated as an important cultural property of the country. Valuable materials such as cloaks worn by him and manuscripts are displayed in the exhibition room that used to be a warehouse before.

A market right next to the Tachineputa Hall. Enjoy "YATTEMARE bowl" which you can pick fresh seafood as you like and enjoy friendly conversation with people in the store.

A cafe using the station building of the former Ashino Park sta. of Tsugaru Railway. In the 80-year-old building there is a remnant which was once a station. The specialty is "Steamed horse meat bun".

Wide range of menus that you should eat in Oku-Tsugaru such as "Tsugaru soup" and "Tomato stew" using regional ingredients like Aomori Shamrock(chicken) and vegetables.

"MADENY" is next to Osamu Dazai 'a birthplace "SHAYO-KAN" and "Tsugaru Shamisen Kaikan". It has local tourist information office, with a souvenir shop and a local cuisine restaurant.

In the 140-year-old private house "Hina-ya", you can taste the meals and sweets made from the local special ingredients. Reservation required 3days before visit.

Baked at high temperature without using glaze, Tsugaru Kanayama pottery has distinctive texture. In front of the store, animal objects with zodiac motifs are displayed and can be touched.

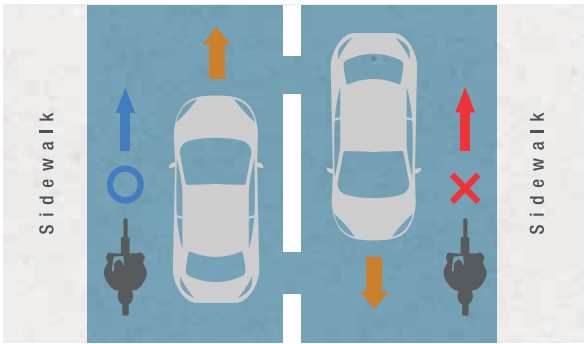

Here is where local people come together as well as visitors. The cafe and restaurant are attached to fresh seafood and local products shop. Let's try an Ajigasawa specialty "Flounder rice bowl"!

Next to the Hokkaido Shinkansen "Otsugaru Imabetsu Station", there is a souvenir shop and restaurant. Special menu "Imabetsu beef steak" is served only five-dishes a day.

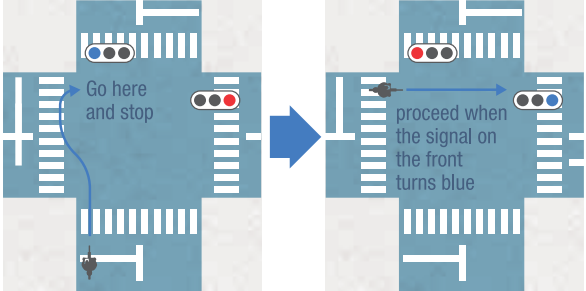

TRAFFIC RULES & MANNERS

A minimum manner is necessary to enjoy cycling. Bicycles do not require a driver's license, but riding selfishly is not only a nuisance for pedestrians and drivers, but also there might be an accident. Let's keep cycling safer by observing the rules and manners.

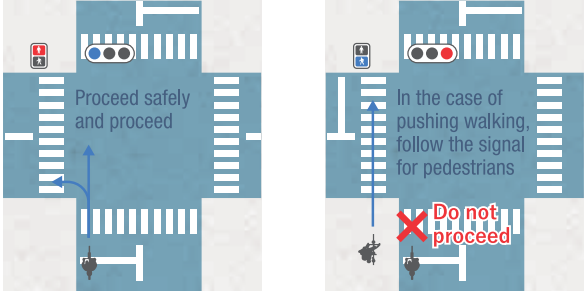

Keep to the left on the roadway

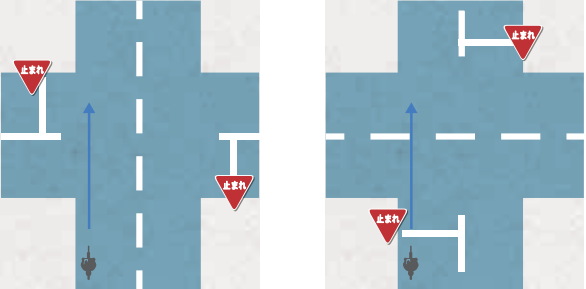

Turn right

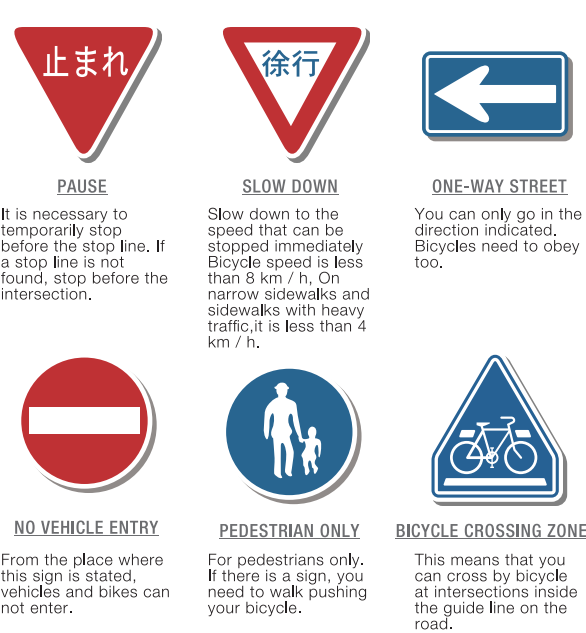

When walking or pushing your bicycle, follow the signals for pedestrians

Intersection without traffic light

Located on the hill in the Tsugaru Quasi-National Park, a place to relax where you can feel the fresh green breeze on the terrace and the forest trail you can overlook Lake Jusanko, Let's get famous clams and Aomori Hiba products here.

Market which stocks local products. In the restaurant, you can eat fresh live squid (Apr.-mid May,) while admiring the Sea of Japan spreading in front of you Tsuruta Town is the largest producer of grapes "Steuben" in Japan . There are plenty of original wines, juices, sweets, etc. made from "Steuben".

Not only souvenirs of Aomori, but handmade "Apple pie", "Gelato" and original rich and meltow ice cream made from carefully selected milk are very popular.

A rest area along R101 near the prefectural border between Aomori and Akita. You can eat some snacks and drink "Otono-Mizu" spring water coming from the World Natural Heritage Site "Shirakami Mountains".

Rest area equipped with a small museum, restaurants, Sake brewery, bakery and so on. A soft-serve ice cream made with local special melon juice is excellent!

Adjacent to the beach, you can enjoy a meal and shopping. Local specialties rice omlet and gelato using plenty of tomatoes are wonderful.

Products market in Tsugaru Shariki. Special products such as watermelon, melon, yam and burdock are sold. You can participate in glass making workshop.

Luxurious "Nakadomari Rockfish meal set" is the specialty set that uses the whole body of high-class fish, with fresh squid sashimi on the side.

The recommendation is the local ramen "Shijimi Ramen" which the soup stock of "Shijimi" taken at Lake Jusanko was effective. A cup full of addictive deliciousness of salty taste.

 CLOSED: Winter season (Dec.-Mar.)

The seasonal saasfood&vegetable set, tuna sashimi, and a bowl of rice with raw fish set meal are highly recommended. "Fukaura Snow Carrot" beef stew is also excellent.

*Sep.-Nov., you can experience apple harvest. If you wish, please contact them in advance by telephone.

Aoike, which is located in the most remote area among the twelve lakes, is called "mysterious pond". It is so transparent that you can see the large beech trees sunk in the bottom of azure.

The name of Senjougiki is originated from the story said that the lord of the area held a large banquet by laying 1,000 tatami mats here long time ago. The sun set scenery is chosen as "100 best sunsets in Japan."

On sunny day, you can see Tappizaki cape, Shimokita Peninsula, Hokkaido. As you go down the stairs there are two bridges connected rock to rock and you can enjoy fishing or catching sea creature.

It is known for God of rich fruit, maritime safety, prosperous business, so many visitors come from in and outside of Aomori. The scenery of "Thousand Torii" lining with a beautiful curve is the masterpiece.

A strong wind blows through the year at the cape of the northern tip of the Tsugaru Peninsula. There are stone monuments such as the Yoshida shoun, Tazai Osamu, etc. The only stair national way "R339" in Japan is also nearby.

Observatory at the highest point of R339, so-called "Tatsudomari Line". You can enjoy 360° big panorama to Hokkaido in the north, when sunny days to Mt.Iwaki in the south.

A long bridge made of "Aomori Hiba" crossing over Lake Fujimi. The total length is 300m and it is the longest wooden bridge in Japan. The appearance reminds us of cranes dancing in the sky.

As you cross a 350m footbridge over the lake, there are facilities with full of fun such as the Kevin House built with hiba tree material, a campground, and places where you can pick the "Shijimi" clam.
